Venice, October 3.

BY a Ship which is come in 20 Days from Corfu we have Advice, that the Captain-General Piſani was arrived there with the Gallies of this Republick: That Rear-Admiral Cammock with two Spaniſh Men of War had been in that Port, and had attempted to ſieze an Engliſh Merchant Ship there, but was hindred by the Vigilance of the Governour Sig. Loredano, who ordered ſix Gallies to lye by that Ship for her Defence all the Time the Spaniards ſtaid. On the 26th paſt the Procurator Sagredo made his publick Entry into the College, being accompanied by a great Number of the Senators in their Scarlet Robes. Laſt Night there was a long Debate in the Senate, about the Disbanding of ſeveral Regiments, but without coming to any Reſolution. Letters from Verona ſay the Imperial Regiment of Gronsfelt had paſſed through the Veroneſe, and is to reſt ſome Time at Mantua, there to be new cloathed.

Berne, Oct. 5. The two Bailiffs, who on the Part of the two Cantons of Zurich and Bern ſequeſtred the Abbot of St. Gall's Dominions during the late Diſputes with that Prelate, are returned to their reſpective Homes, the new Abbot being now enter'd into full Poſſeſſion of his Abbey, and all the Countries belonging to it. The Bailiff of this Canton was preſented at his Departure by the ſaid Prelate with a Purſe of 100 Ducats, as a Mark of his Satisfaction, and deſir'd to thank his Maſters for the Juſtice and Impartiality they had ſhewn in the late Pacification, and his Re-eſtabliſhment. There being an Article in the Treaty concluded at Baden the 15th of June laſt between the Abbot of St. Gall and the two Cantons, which ſtipulates an Amneſty in favour of all thoſe who were baniſh'd on Account of the late Differences, moſt of thoſe who had been out-law'd, are return'd home, except one Schnorpf, Secretary to the deceaſed Abbot, who had been excepted out of that Act of Oblivion. They write from Milan the 27th paſt, that the Republick of Genoa having granted Paſſage to three Imperial Regiments, that of Konigſeck, Bareith and Zumjungen, were to march forthwith towards Genoa, in order to be imbark'd there for Naples.

Paris, Oct. 8. The Cardinal de Noailles has publiſhed a new Appeal, dated the 3d Inſtant, on Occaſion of the Pope's Letter addreſſed to all the Faithful, and publiſhed at Rome the 8th of laſt Month, beginning with the Words Paſtoralis Officii; to which new Appeal the Dean and Chapter of the Metropolitan Church of this City have unanimouſly adhered; in it his Eminency aſſerts, that his former Appeal from the Pope's Conſtitution Unigenitus to the next Council, ſuſpends all the Acts and Proceedings from which he appealed, and has removed the Points which make the Subject of that Appeal to the Tribunal of the Univerſal Church, which has now the ſole Cognizance and Determination of them: As therefore they are intirely taken out of the Pope's Hands, if he ſhould pretend to make uſe of Cenſures or any Act of Juriſdiction to the Prejudice of the ſaid Appeal, the Whole would be void, and ought to be looked upon as an Attempt againſt the Authority of the Univerſal Church. Yeſterday the Faculty of Theology of the Sorbonne aſſembled, in order to appeal in their own Name againſt the above-named Letter or Brief of Separation, but they had only Time to hear three ſeveral Letters read, which have lately been
